

BRAKEMAN KILLED

Jack Casey Meets With Frightful Accident Near Bluewater

Jack Casey, a Santa Fe brakeman who was run over by a work train near Bluewater, Wednesday morning, died while on the way to the hospital at Albuquerque the same day.

Mr. Casey had been employed at Winslow for several months and had many friends there who were shocked by the sad accident.

So far as known, Mr. Casey had no relatives in this part of the country, his parents residing in Ireland. His body was taken in charge by the Strong undertaking establishment of Albuquerque and held pending some information as to its disposition.

A Corn Cure

Moisten a small piece of cotton in strong cider vinegar and place over corn, wearing stocking and shoe as usual through the day and wrapping with cloth at night. Put on fresh cotton and vinegar morning and night until corn softens so as it can be pressed out. It will not return.—National Magazine.

What Makes A Woman?

One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health and strength and she may rule a kingdom. But that's just what Electric Bitters give her. Thousands bless them for overcoming fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, worn out feeling. "Electric Bitters have done me a world of good," writes Eliza Pool, Depew, Okla., "and I thank you, with all my heart, for making such a good medicine." Only 50c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

George Morse, the sheepman, came in from Holbrook yesterday morning for a couple day's visit with friends here.—Flagstaff Sun.

Sheriff Joe Woods of Navajo county went through Flagstaff Wednesday evening from Benson where he had been to take a young patient to the reform school.—Flagstaff Sun.

The foundation of the W. B. Woods office building was completed this week and the brick work will be commenced soon.

There was a big dance at Adama Saturday night. Quite a large crowd from here went up on No. 10 and came back on No. 1, reporting a very pleasant time.

"Casey" Jones came home from Ash Fork Wednesday night and left yesterday for Holbrook with Studebaker autos he intends disposing of in that section.—Flagstaff Sun.

Judge and Mrs. Sapp were Winslow visitors Saturday for the purpose of attending of the Eastern Star Lodge there.

KEEP PRINTING AT HOME

In the hope of securing from the legislature an act which will keep the state, county and municipal printing at home, the various local branches of the Typographical Union have petitioned Governor Hunt to include that provision in his call for the legislature to assemble in special session. Publishers have also joined in petitioning the governor in the same connection.

The argument is that the state, counties and cities, in awarding contracts for printing, should deal with the printing and publishing houses of Arizona, whose highly-paid employees and their families are direct contributors to the welfare of their localities and of the state, instead of sending the printing to firms outside the state.

In the latter case, the money paid by the authorities leaves Arizona and is gone forever. In the former, it is retained in the state and circulates through the channels of trade.

Governor Hunt, in reply, states that while he cannot safely predict the contents of his call, he will keep the petition in mind with a view to giving it further attention.—Star.

"Clean Up the Bowels and Keep Them Clean"

There are many remedies to be had for constipation, but the difficulty is to procure one that acts without violence. A remedy that does not perform by force what should be accomplished by persuasion is Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets. After using them, Mr. N. A. Waddell, 345 Washington St., Waco, Tex., says:

"Almost all my life I have been troubled with constipation, and have tried many remedies, all of which seemed to cause pain without giving much relief. I finally tried Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets and found them excellent. Their action is pleasant and mild, and their chocolate taste makes them easy to take. I am more than glad to recommend them."

"Clean up the bowels and keep them clean," is the advice of all physicians, because they realize the danger resulting from habitual constipation. Do not delay too long, but begin proper curative measures. Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are a new remedy for this old complaint, and a great improvement over the cathartics you have been using in the past. They taste like candy and work like a charm. A trial will convince you.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are sold by all druggists, at 25 cents a box containing 25 doses. If not found satisfactory after trial, return the box to your druggist and he will return your money. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.
